

SPACE CATS

Today, the Space Cats came to our school! We learned about space, the solar system, and two huge planets called Jupiter and Saturn.

Soon, we will be able to see Jupiter and Saturn, coming very close together in the sky at night. They haven't been this close for nearly 400 years! It is called the "Great Conjunction".